Official Press Release

Bank Robbery

Santander Bank
116 W. Township Line Road

On Thursday, October 26, 2023, at 11:05 AM, the Haverford Township Police Department responded to the Santander Bank, 116 W. Township Line Road for a bank robbery in progress. While officers were enroute, the bank security advised the responding officers that the bank robber, a white male, 50-60 years of age was observed exiting the bank after being given an undetermined sum of U.S. currency, and then entering a gray sedan. Bank security observed the vehicle drive through the parking lot with an elderly white female in the front passenger seat. As police entered the parking lot, the vehicle fled at a high rate of speed southbound on W. Township Line Road. The vehicle, a gray Mitsubishi Mirage, was stopped at W. Township Line Road and Bryan Street, and its driver, Glen Allen Mokshefski, was positively identified as the bank robber and was taken into custody. The vehicle passenger, who was the Mokshefski's mother, was also taken into custody, but was later released after the investigation revealed that she was not involved in the bank robbery.

The Defendant, Glen Allen Mokshefski, of the unit block of Lancaster Ave, Downingtown, PA, W/M/56, is charged with Robbery, Theft and Receiving Stolen Property.
